

Massa drama in Massadonië Discord server.docx

the english transcript

By: Mister T from the A-Team

Context: Mike had not been handling his moderation responsibility right, and become of some other drama in the mod chats it lead to this.

Makker = name of the users

Stamkroeg = general chat

Politieke quarantaine = the politics chat

Protestvak = the complaints channel

Sam = Studio Massa

Final Representative = “the responsible one”.
-----

The first few bits are not transcribed, because I didn't think it was necessary at that point. But a bit later, I realised this was too much to just describe. I spent about 2 months on this because I didn't have a lot of time (college is a bitch), but here it finally is. Sorry for the wait.

A few other notes; Don't go harass these people. You're better than that. Go outside, go look at the birds. The world is beautiful outside of the internet. People make mistakes and are retards, and just let them be. They're just like you, human. I make fun of them here, but I could easily drink a beer with any of these guys. I don't think anyone is in the right or in the wrong, I just think it's a bunch of problems that came together and made into a messy little mess. I hope you have the same literacy as me :)

Anyways, I hope you guys enjoy my hard work. See you later!

Darkie gets upset because he gets a lot of dms from members, asking why the server got locked. He says Massa doesn't care, he doesn't take the discord seriously. Darkie wants Mikes confirmation that the people are 'autistic' (f'ing retards)

"Oom Dagobert", owner of the r/cirkeltrek server, wants to put in his word on the situation

(darkie) Mikes wants to have the responsibility, while shoving all the responsibility on the other people

Robin

Now you're only telling your side of the story

Thank you oh my god I've been saying this for 3 hours

The only thing I've heard is people just playing the victim card

That's the only explanation being giving

Mike: do you know why I didn't mute you guys

Robin: Do you want a pat on the back for not muting us?

Merel: Why did you kick me out of the groupchat? I just think it sucks that people are talking behind my back that Mike said "oh yeah Mike says that he feels sorry, but Sam unleashed the dogs on Merel and Robin"

Mike doesn't know

Robin (kill me): A lot of the "makkers" (server members) have the feeling that Sam has quite literally unleashed the dogs on me and Merel.

Mike doesn't know anything about it

Robin: Mike you need to explain why you kicked Merel out of the group chat

Mike: He suspected that there was a "leaker"

Robin: These are things that you have to discuss, but you don't do that do you!

Darkie: Don't kick her out of the modchat

Mike: Yeah but she isn't a moderator

Merel: Who cares? I still have stuff to put in. If I get involved in something, by you, then I have the right to say something about myself! Get it

Robin: if you wanted to kick her out because she wasn't a mod, you should've told us.

Darkie: Why didn't you do this months ago, when she stole (someones, unintelligible) phone to spam a little bit in the modchat

Merel: I don't wanna bash on you, and you also know that, but-

Robin: My arguments don't come out of nowhere, and I have three hours -

Merel: but it sucks that i get removed all of the sudden, because i didn't do shit
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WtfzQOgtUx4>

Merel: I'm trying to have a normal conversation with people, but now I feel like you didn't want to have backup, and therefore kicked me out of the groupchat. Because of things that I can say or can back Robin with things that happened.

Mike: The reason why I was kicking people out was because there was a "leaker"

Merel: I KNOW

Mike: And you... were the "leaker"

Merel: I'M NOT THE LEAKER. I EVENTUALLY MADE "JOCHEM" (don't know who that guy is) MODERATOR. I WAS NOT THE LEAKER TO HAROLD

Mike: Well then you made Jochem mod, made him ping makkers

Merel: I didn't do that. I made him and and ran away (metaphorically)

Merel: Mike, it's really unfair of you to say "Oh Robin did this once, so then it stops"

Darkie: Your solution was to have Massa make a statement, that would be exactly your words

Mike NO! NO!

Darkie criticises Mike's action as a moderator, and says he needs to take responsibility. Says that he treated the mods like shit, and he says he should apologise. He doesn't care that the server is toxic as fuck, it's just shit.

Mike: Do you think... that in any server... with servers bigger than us... more than 1500 members.. maybe more than that... do you think there is a folks-republic of members that scream to an admin whatever they want... while those admins still have to execute orders from people above them... like there is constantly a big knife above us

*some guy laughs at Mikes retarded reddit ass comment. jesus christ, autistics be stupiding*

Some guy (I suspect Oom Dagobert): Sorry guys. just a moment. look. You just pulled the numbers card, and that's the dumbest card you can pull in this situation. It doesn't matter if you have 1500 men in this situation, or you have 3 men in this situation. You can't say as an admin "this is what I want to do", because it was also said if someone doesn't speak your way then it becomes a "garbage mess". And you said "that's not true", but it is true. That's not necessarily against you, that's just common knowledge. If you have a team where one person does everything, then it becomes a trashfest, because he is going to end up scaring through with what will happen!

Robin and Merel laugh in agreement throughout his SNL monologue

Mike: yes

Robin: Why did you say yes? You made the choice to not stick up for any people from (unintelligible)

Mike: I didn't make the choice to do everything alone

Robin: Yes you did, because if someone else comes with an proposal then it's not allowed, but if you come with an proposal then someone else has to fix the shit for you.

Darkie: It can get worse, because Mike wants to do everything himself, but he doesn't want to have any of the responsibility.

Robin: And that's the whole problem Mike, and you know that

Mike: I didn't have that responsibility from the beginning

Robin: Mike, Mike, you know that Sam (massa) has no responsibility (in dutch its said in a more... Dutch way) with the server, but you still want him put him as the Final Representative. And that's not him, and you know that. I have told you 10 times that he put mods in power, because he wants to distance himself of the server. And you still do this.

(quick editors note: Robin said "afrekken" instead of "terugtrekken", which also means "jerking off in Dutch". Thought that was quite funny.)

Some retard: REEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE

Mike: Can someone mute them

Oom Dagobert: You can do that too Mike

Merel: I get the argument that you've muted everyone except us. Can I just say that there have been multiple people in my dms to have their word on behalf of the community.

“There are plenty of people in the community who can talk about it normally, and not shout REEEEEEE so autistically”

Mike: I didn't mute anyone

Robin: Who did then

Oom dagobert (I think): What the fuck? You ask people if you can mute them, but eh???

Mike: When people started screaming I asked if you could mute them

(note from editor: he could do that himself. if you're still reading this, please take a 30 minute walk and say hi to atleast 10 people you meet. the moderators from this hellhole should do it too, and you should be one of the examples for them)

Robin: Mike, Mike, This is a perfectexample for things that you put on, that you let others do because you don't want to get all the blame.

Oom dagobert: One of my most trusted associates is in this call, but they're muted. You can't ask people to mute people and then think you don't have any responsibility. Because you have that

Robin: you're the Final Representative

Darkie: This is exactly how it goes in the modchat. “This is something I've caused, but I don't take the responsibility because it's not my fault.”

This is something we've been dealing with for months in the modchat, and now everyone has been exposed to it.

Robin: Mike you have to understand-

(some other bitch ass fellow): Mike's not muting anyone, thats me

Robin: I want communication because you are the responsible Mike. If the mods do something, you are the responsible one, and if you don't want that to happen, you have to communicate. But you don't communicate Mike.

Mike: I communicate plenty.

Everyone: No you don't do that.

Robin: you've also said that Sam wants to make a statement, even though Sam doesn't want that.

Mike: I never said that Sam has to make a statement

Robin: FUCK OFF (she just made a sound in Dutch, that could be perceived as fuck off. Makes it more understandable for you guys, hugs and kisses from Dutchboy31)

Everybody is just talking over eachother, I'm not gonna translate any shit. It's so unintelligible.

Mike (turns into a mom): Ah, it doesn't matter WHAT I say here...

(some guy): That's not the point here Mike, the point that's being made here is that it matters what you say. So the shit that you say doesn't relate to the stuff you say after that Darkie: Mike, mike, doo you want to see live proof? Makkers, send me all your screenshots of Youri or Mike saying that Massa wants to make a statement, and I'll open Stamkroeg (general chat) for you. Let's see how much stuff we get.

Mike: IM BEING CORNERED BY EVERYONE

Robin: This is exactly what I mean

Darkie: Just see how many screenshots will be sent in!!!

Mike: Yes, I was getting cornered by everyone, I can't do it any other way.

Robin: YOU CANT DO THAT MIKE YOU CANT (rest is unintelligible)

Darkie: Just you see how many screenshots will come in right now!

Mike (confused, weak, beta male voice): Hello..???

(some guy): Can I just ask one question before it becomes one big shit fling contest? What do all of you guys wanna achieve with this call?

Mike: Well I removed all the text channels, because everyone started sending everyone pings, which was made possible by Robin and Jochem

Robin: Not my fault, but you're the Final Representative

(some guy, I think Oom Dagobert (im losing my sanity)): Ugh.... *facepalm* why do you mention that, that's not my question... my question is...

Mike: But then everyone went in voice, because that was the only channel left

Oom dagobert (im certain): Well people went in voice because people were curious on what the fuck was happening, and I get why this call exists now.

Mike: And I tried to tell what was happening

Oom dagobert: The thing is, you don't do that. You're just throwing people under the bus without explaining the situation. That's happening, and that's why people are mad.

Robin: And now there's a question being asked, and you take every opportunity to say "haha Robin made a mistake".

oom dagobert: That's actually whats happening, because I asked "why are we here", and I get a really vague answer of "this is what happened and it was made responsible by X & X" That's not the point of this discussion

Robin: Yeah I agree

Oom dagobert: The point of this discussion is "what happened, what went wrong, and whats the aftermath"

Robin: It's not like we want to nail you to a cross, there were mistakes made, and I also made a lot of mistakes, but if you answer to something you did wrong with stuff other people did wrong, what am I to take from you then

Mike: I really can't give you another reason why we're sitting here.

Darkie: The reason is "everyone is wrong except me and that's why we're here"

Robin: You did a stupid server ping in announcements, thats the reason why we're here.

Mike: Not one! Spam!

Robin: And this had to happen (I think, her microphone cut out for a second), because everything had to become shit

Oom Dagobert: Let's phrase it more clearly. What's the point, do you want to make it clearer for people, do you want that this will resurface after months or is this some final testament.... whats the point?

Mike: For me it was really clear that it was a last testament

Robin: What do you wanna do then, transfer ownership?

Mike: I never had ownership

Robin: Oh yeah I know, I didn't mean it in that way

Mike (sounds like a trump speech): This is the reaction from people to me... who I have given moderator powers... good or bad... and yes i was one of the only ones who seriously did that in the beginning, when I modded people, who actually wanted to contribute... and uih....

Darkie: Can I just give the reason why were here

Robin: Yeah in the middle of the sentence where you had to remind EVERYONE that you were one of the few people who did stuff...

Mike: You know... uhhh... thats an argument for and against me. Because you all want to nail me to a cross....

Robin: Thats not true

Mike: Yes it is, because it was my system and I was the responsible one

Oom dagobert: Yeah but you're right *starts laughing at Mikes retardation*

Robin: You're saying that for the billionth time, that you (intelligible)

Mike: I know

Oom dagobert: Of course you are that in some way

Mike: Of course I am!

Oom dagobert: But you should've... (probably was gonna say "said that")

Mike: But the weird thing was... people didn't want... if something went right... nobody said something

Oom dagobert: But thats how discord works

Robin: That's how life works

Oom dagobert: That's really how life works

Mike: And of course, if there is a system that someone else take responsibility for... (long pause bitch) you rather have that person get all the hate

Oom dagobert: ummmm

Robin: But....

Mike: But there's nobody in this server that would've liked to take off the weight of Massas shoulders like me (Mike: man he's really jerking himself off)

Everybody: uhhhh.... no?

Robin: (unintelligible woman noise)

Oom Dagobert: Okay point taken. But if you take 90% of the moderation on your back. like you say, that you automatically put the largest target on your back right?

Mike: Ja, absolutely, and I realise that now, and that has been a huge mistake. I have to say, that 9 watt was in the first half of 2018

Robin: Ongezellig didn't exist back then

Mike: We were in a switch of moderators from people who knew Massa personally, to a team that actually wanted to moderate and wanted by active

Darkie: uhhmhdmm (cant understand what hes saying but hes mumbling something probably some Egyptian curse)

Mike: What

Darkie: When was the first time you realised it was a big mistake?

Mike: After removing "politieke quarantaine" (context: this was a political discussion channel in the server, but got deleted because of some incidents)

Darkie: Not before that?

Mike: No

Oom dagobert: Thats also a thing...

Merel: So after that previous fight you also didn't go like "mmm?" (like "did I make a mistake" context)

Darkie: So basically, what is being said now, after you had your policy of "political quarantine" implanted, I can just say for a moment that I found the policy less, I think all admins except you and Joerie, and I think all buddies here, who I think are going to agree with me that after the removal of "political quarantine", that is not because of the removal itself, but since that moment, the policy has gone completely backwards....

Mike: JA

Darkie: Has it gone down the drain?

Mike: JA

Darkie: (Tries to talk)

Mike ABSOLUUT

Darkie: So my question is now: Who's fault is this?

Mike: I will take the blame, but also share it. A deletion like "political quarantaine" doesn't make a lot of people happy, and then I can have good reasons and bad reasons. But since that point of time, it didn't matter what the staff did, there was always someone upset at it. And there was always drama.

Merel: No but... jesus christ... 2 people wanted to get rid of "political quaranaine" that...

Darkie: (noise)

Mike: Ho!

Darkie: And that's why we decided as admins to delete "protestvak" (probably a suggestion channel)

Mike: That has completely different reasons

Robin: Yeah, but you said "yeah "protestvak" is only there to protest for the sake of it", but when someone actually has genuine critique, you delete the channel

Mike: No. I barely censored

Robin: You removed when you couldn't back yourself anymore regarding Sam (keeps rambling)

Mike: Ja, of course. Listen. That evening....

Robin: You have sealed the truth for some reason, I don't know why, but that was a stupid move

Darkie: That's not the point Robin. (now directed to Mike): You say that you barely censored anything, but if you barely censor anything, then: You wouldn't have deleted Jochems message, you wouldn't have closed all the channels for the makkers, and then you wouldn't have muted everyone

Mike: If he would've done the announcement without the ping and without a under- un- und-underlying thought...

Darkie: so...

Mike: If there is a group in front of you of 20, 30 people

Darkie: So you're literally saying

Robin (singing): The argumeeeeeent

Mike: If the makkers didn't get pinged then I would've cucked myself with all my love. That/s what youre saying

Robin: Can i have a moment

Mike: I doesn't matter what I do. If I hadn't deleted the message, I would've cucked myself in your words, and if I deleted it I would've been a nazi-mod. This is a perfect example of: whatever I do, it's gonna be wrong

Oom dagobert: What's this even about at this point....

Mike: This is how I've been living with myself for weeks

Robin: I would repeat it properly for you. It doesn't mean that you're right Mike

Oom Dagobert: No! No! No! We're just shitflinging from both sides about details that don't matter in the long run. Sometimes I looked in "protestvak" and I sometimes saw the spam in that channel. But instead of debating eachother, you can ban people?? Question mark???

Mike: THATS WHAT I WANTED TO DO. BUT DID YOU KNOW WHAT THE FEEDBACK WAS FOR THAT

If you're only reading the document and not watching the video, go to 24:12 to hear Mike yell it's the funniest shit ever

Oom Dagobert: Calm calm calm. You don't have to turn on your testosterone-pump, you can talk like a regular human being too

Robin: *laughs*

Robin: I just wanna say that a lot of moderators disagreed with that (referring to Mikes policy)

Mike: It is, it is....

Darkie: I wanna be clear about that. Mike, this is what I literally what I said two weeks ago. If you wanna ban people, but you have to take responsibility.

Robin: That's right

Darkie: I will share those recordings with all my love, then you can listen back to it yourself. I literally said to you: Or you take responsibility, or you're gonna give more input from the mods, gonna listen to what the mappers think, and do actually good for the server

Robin: But

Darkie: And I said: "do you wanna be a dictator or do you actually wanna do something?". And you said: I'd rather be a dictator

Mike: That's not how I said it!!!

Oom Dagobert: Jesus, it's just another one of these cases... come on guys

Darkie: Who wants the recording? Who wants the recording?

Robin: It's not about the recording

Mike: I can tell you something about the recording! Because in cases such as "protestvak" and other such things, I got cornered by people who got obsessed with the mistakes that I had made and the holes in my system and

Robin: no no no

Mike: And there's probably a better solution

Robin: That's unfair to say. The only thing we did was contradict you because we disagreed with you. Then you went in the defense and said "uhhh you're gangraping me". That's unfair to say Mike. And besides that, you always had Joerie on your side so you shouldn't complain about that.

(I changed banging to raping, because gangbangs are consensual. I know this because I am a rapist)

Robin: That you didn't wanna ban people from "protestvak" is something we agreed with you on,

Mike: Yes that is correct!

Robin: But then we also said, and that's something Farouk (Darkie) said: If you wanna do that, you must take all responsibility. And you're not doing that Darkie: You were...

Mike: LISTEN. I have banned plenty of people and taken the responsibility on myself. Did it help? Absolutely not! And why is that? It's because the communities mindset changed in 2018 where they started turning against the authoritarian policies.

Darkie: So you're basically saying.... (rest is unintelligible to me)

Merel (or Robin, probably Merel): Just a little bit about the mindset of the community. Can I put in a word as 'voice of the community', because apparently I've been appointed as 'voice of the community', is that I'm getting a lot of dms from people who don't know what's going on, but only know that you're pulling a huge victim card. Because people don't wanna hear "I made mistakes, but that's because of these other people" or "I did this, but I took all the responsibility because I am the mod that fixes all and everything" that's not what people want to hear. They just want clarity!!!

Mike: We can also talk what's going to happen to the server, but I think that all of you are REALLY interested in the role I play in this!

Robin: that's right... wait no no no

(someone): We're gonna do that later

Merel (or Robin, probably Merel): What people wanna know is clarity about "what's gonna happen with the server?"

Mike: At this point, that's Sam's responsibility

Everyone: No no no

Oom Dagobert: Listen

Robin: You're the responsible one, don't do that

Oom Dagobert: Okay so let's see this from an outsiders perspective, which in this case, is me. At this point in time the server has gone in quarantine, radioactive shit everywhere. Dan is het niet handig om iemand er bij te betrekken, teminste, niet super direct, die zich er nooit mee gemengd heeft. Er is eigenlijk al een beslissing gemaakt van: "Ziet Massa het nut van deze server nog in, wat is het originele nut?" Daar moet je hem bij betrekken. Maar het is niet dat al deze shitfling and all these dm mod cases that you guys are talking about or whatever, met Sam erbij. Want daar heeft hij geen ene boodschap aan.

Robin: Agreed

Darkie: But just wanna prove one little thing to Mike, because I have the feeling that Mike has been thinking lately of ...

Robin: No no no Farouk Farouk

Darkie ...if Sam... wait wait wait

Robin: Farouk no Farouk...

Robin: Now, we need to try to set up concretely what we are going to do with the server. Everything regarding roles and arguments will come after that.

Mike: And everything about me, and about you and between us

Merel: I think it's a good plan for now to look at what we're going to do with the server, and that we're gonna take the arguing to the moderation channels.

Everyone: Mumbling

Mike: I wanna make one thing clear, and that's because most people here are on the same side of you guys, and that is: I would resign with love.

Robin: Okay so do that

Oom Dagobert: It's not even a thing of "agree or disagree," it's a thing of looking more at "what can I take responsibility for, what should other people take responsibility for, and how do you go from there?" Because you can resign...

Mike: No, no, no

Robin: Let him finish

Mike: Dago... I've been living with this for a month... actually longer... with this

Everyone: Talking over eachother

Mike (getting upset): No, I have no passion for moderating here anymore. For months...

Robin: BUT IF YOU RESIGN NOW, YOU'RE GOING TO FORCE US TO CLEAN UP THE MESS YOU'VE MADE

Mike: That's not true

Oom Dagobert: Ho ho, wait a minute, that's not an argument. Moderation is voluntary and it's your own free time that you put into it

Mike and Robin: That's true

Oom Dagobert: And if you don't like it, you should resign. That's a fair argument. But the thing is that if you're not enjoying it anymore, you have to indicate that you don't like doing it anymore. Because if you're gonna moderate with a trash-mindset, then people are going doubt about you. And that's what happened in my opinion

Mike: I had the feeling that if I would resign, the whole server would fall apart

Darkie: Nope

Robin: Noooooooooooo.....

Oom Dagobert: That's a possibility, I'm not going to argue that. But you have responsibility, right?

Mike: Well yeah...

Oom Dagobert: So you'd have to take that responsibility. It's simple *starts laughing*

Robin: Yup

(awkward silence from Mike)

end of part two (30:14)
-----

Beginning of part three
-----

Mike: And there are probably going to be a lot of people who never wanna see me again, but also don't wanna clean up my mess

Oom Dagobert: You can (cant understand) but if you can run a server well, nobody cares.

Some other guy: By the way, I don't think it matters whats gonna happen, but I just got a message from a regular joe "makker" that he wants the server back.

Mike: There are a lot of people who wanna keep the server, even me.

Oom dagobert: The thing is

Mike: The way we got the responsibility from Massa to run his server, because he was responsible for everything but didn't want that, so he made us responsible. But the makkers, have gone against specifically towards Joerie and me, "we don't trust you anymore, let Sams voice be heard". I'm literally between two sides who don't wanna communicate with eachother

(editors note; no this is not translated horribly, Mike just doesn't know how to formulate an answer)

Oom Dagobert: But if they say something like that to you, it's super simple. Just say "we are the moderators here, and if you don't agree choke in your uvula" that so simple

Mike: I would've love to have done that, but if I would've done that everybody would've thought I were a nazi mod!!!

Robin: Listen Mike, can i ask a question really quickly? That people messaged you about how they wanted to hear something from Sam, was that (somebody cracks open a cold one) before or after you made the statement?

Mike; That was before that. That was the reason that I said that. I never promised a statement, I said that we were going to negotiate. And that perhaps a statement would come out of it. But I never promised it. But people made it into a promise, behind my back

Robin: And then you closed "protestvak" under the guise of "we're not saying anything until Sam makes a statement"

Mike: I didn't close it. Joerie and me agreed that the conversation happening there was going nowhere and just attacking the mods for everything, Captain (old mod) can confirm that, and nothing could solve that anymore

Oom Dagobert: Yeah it's fair that you closed it then

Mike: Yes indeed its fair that we closed it. And you can say "protestvak is the place where the people can give their opinions, but...

Robin but but but but

Mike: AE

Robin: But that's not what I'm saying. I said you closed it under the guise of that it'll reopen when Sam says something

Oom Dagobert: Mmm I get ya

Darkie: What I went wrong is here that Mike assumes that all makkers don't wanna listen to him but only to Sam. That's something that still bothers me

Mike: Yes but...

Some user: As someone who has nothing to do with this, I don't know what the fuck is going on anymore. Please explain it to me.

Oom Dagobert: The thing is, I get that people want to hear something from Sam, but I doubt if that's going to be a good plan. Because if Sam decides the server disappears it's Mike fault, and if Sam says something he got bribed by the mods. So that's not something you can depend on. It's more that we've created this situation by the people who hold the responsibility, so you can't say you need to wait for a statement by Sam. That's not gonna help at all. So...

Darkie: The problem is that

Mike: But then

Darkie: He's still convinced that everybody wants a statement from Sam

Oom Dagobert: *dutch noise that i can't translate*

Mike: I don't know where he got that convincing from

Oom Dagobert: Well that doesn't matter, that's the low key of this, that you close "protestvak" because the conversations are toxic, that's fucking fine, that's up to you. But it is that you respond afterwards (and I don't know if this is so this I hear from) we are waiting for Sam to say something, that is something you do have to live up to your promise in the end.

Mike: And you think if that the people are just teasing the moderators for a reaction, I just should've banned them.

Oom Dagobert: Yes, that's why you're here

Mike: I agree with that

Oom Dagobert: But then you have to do it

Mike: But there were so many people who went against me, that I didn't dare to do that anymore (puuusssyyyyy)

Oom Dagobert: I doubt if it goes that way, because I can remember...

Mike: Yes. Yes.

Oom Dagobert: a discussion about the legendary role "verbannen" (banned), that you gave them that role but didn't ban them. I don't know where that idea came from but I can remember that

(cuts out)

Darkie: Yeah

Mike: That's a long time ago, and that was because we wanted to give people the right to see Massas updates. But that's outdated, because people kept leaving the server just to lose the role. But it's irrelevant.

Darkie: the thing is that 2 weeks ago you said you were afraid to ban people, but but you do want to implement the policy

Mike: Nope. I was because of opinions from the staff team and the makers a bit confused. Because people kept complaining. Even if I banned all those people who made drama in protestvak.

Darkie: So you're saying that you're a incompetent staff member

Mike: I am competent. I would've loved to have taken that authority and banned those people. But I think the server would be worse, because we would be getting more complaints.

Oom Dagobert: uhhh

Darkie: let me say something clearly

Mike: I think that whatever option I chose, we would've ended up in this call because people were not happy with how I worked as an admin.

Darkie: Look, the thing is. The whole problem started, and I've told it so many times, and told it to you so many times, and it's something Dagobert and Robin know, you take this way too seriously.

Robin: But listen up

Oom Dagobert: But that's not a valid argument

Robin: We are wandering off, the makkers are hungry for a concrete solution of what we are going to do with the server. And we're wandering off.

(unidentified): They want the server back

Robin: They want the server back, and if it needs to be with Mike

Member: I want the "stamkroeg" to open again

Merel: I am getting messages from users that they want to move our beef to another place, and that they want clarity of what is going to happen with the server. They're feeling really left behind by us right now.

Mike: We are trying to do it in the mod chats, but it let to this either way.

Darkie: So

Robin: so you want to to it in public while a 100 people are listening

Mike: I'm not saying that, I'm saying...

Robin: These people are waiting for the sign that the server will continue.

Mike; That's right

Darkie: Can I say something?

Robin: (cant understand)

Mike: the people want the server back

Robin: Yes

Oom Dagobert: Listen, listen guys. No wait, calm down. That's whats the most important thing now.

Robin: So?

Darkie: Mike, can I ask you for your solution on how to open the server again?

Mike: Okay, so I had the following ideas. And I needed Sam for them. Namely, Sam doesn't have the responsibility in the end, because he has no interest in moderating. So, the the responsibility goes to the admins, one of the admins gets owner, and the server is going to be for fans by fans, and he's an honored guest. Then all the drama between the staff and the makkers doesn't matter to him, because he's just the honoured guest. The responsibility of the moderation is not only for the admins, because that caused that the admins to take responsibility for the mods, and then the admins would have to steer the wheel, and there were problems with that. So the whole responsibility would be given to the "vuilnesmakkers" (the moderators), and be in the penalty, so everyone is responsible for their owner moderation. And if there are going to be complaints, than those will be handled individually. In return for the extra responsibility, the vuilnismakkers will get more rights and prestige, so instead of the staff being on top of the server list, the vuilnismakkers will be on top of the server list. And a little injustice details don't matter now. Last, daar heb since there was so much unrest in "Protesvak" and the closing of "Political Quarantine," if Sam would no longer have final responsibility for the server, and no longer be seen by journalists as responsible, "Political Quarantine" could return as an option channel, you need a role for that....

Some user unmutes and plays loud music

Mike: I'm gonna mute this one if you guys don't mind

Robin: Oh my god, continue

Mike: And if you want to have a Studio Massa server with politics, you can get the role, and you can share your political beliefs and such there. And if you don't want to see that, you don't have to get the role, and the politics chat wouldn't be relevant. And we also wanted to do this with "fandom quarantaine", because there was a lot of critique on that too.

Darkie: I'm sorry that I have to say this, but I don't want you to shine with my solution.

Oom Dagobert: Jesus Christ, this is going too far. From what I'm hearing it's a bit of an "authority problem", that's not something for the users.

Robin: No, we can fight this out in the modchat

Mike: YES BUT

Oom Dagobert: Calm down, calm down. I think what's important now, is that you now have to answer the question of "are we getting the server back?" I would do that now, even if you have to discuss it with the staff

Robin: Maybe we should vote with the mods: Are we gonna continue and solve our problems. Yes or no.

Oom Dagobert: If I were you I should do that in DM, because there are a lot of people who want to have it back

Robin: But people want to know if the server is gonna come back

Mike: That's true

Oom Dagobert: But if you're all gonna talk over each other in call, that means that....

Robin: There are 6 mods online

Oom Dagobert: I meant that if the one half says no and the other half says yes, and there is a discussion, it's not important for us. There needs to be a discussion.

Darkie: My problem is that Mike is shining with my idea....

Robin: FAROUK SHUT THE FUCK UP. THIS HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH IT.

Darkie: Thanks

Robin: You're gonna do that later, we've said that

Mike: I want to say something. I don't know where the idea of political quarantine came from, but if you came up with it, thank you

Robin: We're gonna do that in the moderator chat, let's solve this first.

Merel: Can you guys add me again?

Mike: Of course

Merel: Thanks *giggles*

Darkie: I'm getting messages of people saying "are you putting up with that? do you put up with that?"

Oom Dagobert: A lot of people are just gonna shittalk. I also god dms

Robin: Massadonië, extra servers, it's about nothing

Oom Dagobert: I'm even getting shittalked at this point

Robin: Yeah

Oom Dagobert: Doesn't matter, just solve this among the mod team, I think we have to accept that you don't have an answer yet and that we're just gonna wait

Robin: I think we mods are now setting up somewhere else to continue, and that we're getting answer later this evening

Mike: The thing is, even if we hold a vote, there are still gonna be things from people that they want or don't want.

Darkie: Therefore, I would like to make one suggestion: We're going to talk about this, maybe with dago in attendance, in another chat, and we'll reopen the server; but at the end of the evening or possibly tomorrow if there's a delay, we'll do "Makkers" ping and we're going to make it clear to everyone in voice chat, publicly, what our new plan is, so that everyone has plenty of opportunity to know what we're going to do.

Robin: Yeah but, There is still no setting from the makkers because it is still going to be charges.

Darkie: But in the end I want the makkers to know what we discussed and how we will be moving forward.

Robin: I meant to say that

Oom Dagobert: You can give a TLDR for that, that's no problem

Darkie: But I want that people know it today, and that it will not be silenced for the public.

Oom Dagobert: You should do that. I don't think there's any more sense in it. I know I'm taking control, but I know it'll become a shitflinging contest if I don't do that.

Mike: Thanks

Oom Dagobert: So I want to say, people who are not mods have to accept that the solution is still gonna be unclear now, people are busy with that I guess. And I hope there is gonna be an answer soon. Can I confirm that there's gonna be an answer soon?

Robin: Yes

Oom Dagobert: Okay, so with this it is resolved

Robin: We can also set something up like, we're gonna continue in this call, and if you wanna stick around you can do that.

Mike: But who is gonna post that?

Oom Dagobert: That's a good question, but I don't think we should worry about that now.

Mike: The problem is that if I post it, that I'm pushing my own opinions through.

Oom Dagobert: I think that's a fair point, but I don't think it should be discussed here.

Unknown: I don't think it matters who does it, maybe you'll let Dago do it.

Oom Dagobert: *LAUGHS* Well then everything will go wrong. Then everything will burn down.

*everyone laughs*

Oom Dagobert: I get your point, but that shouldn't be discussed here.

Mike: But can I just say, I also got a lot of DMs by people who said "it's over Mike, go away or delete the server" and I've even gotten dms bij /polder/ that said "hah, we got yo"

Oom Dagobert: Fuck that, that doesn't matter

Mike: I just wanna say that there are still factors who on purpose planned this since the beginning.

Oom Dagobert: yeah...

Mike: And there should be action being taken

Unknown: Those people can leave the server

Mike: That should've happened earlier, but I have been stopped.

Oom Dagobert: Please go in the fucking mod call, because this is just gonna lead to more dms

Mike: But

Robin: But

Mike: But I hope that whatever solution we end up with, will be respected by the makkers, like it always went until a few weeks or months ago

Darkie: My opinion is, that I think a full democracy is impossible in this situation, but I think that in the end that we have to do referendums for the makkers, and that we work out the solution together, because in the end it's for them.

Mike: Of course. I have an idea; replacing protestvak with a referendum channel, and if other cases have to be discussed by the staff, Joerie just made a beautiful email address or you can DM an admin, or moderator, or staff member. So not a place where people can complain, can peer pressure people or spectacle talk. Because that's negativity.

Darkie: *giggiling* So basically you're saying, petitions are open

Oom Dagobert: Wait a minute, can we please discuss this in mod call, because we're...

Robin: I just wanna say really quickly, and I don't know if its a good idea, but Makkers want us to open stamkroeg right now.

Oom Dagobert: I wouldn't do that, because then it will become a big speculation circlejerk, and it will become an echochamber.

Mike: I think the server should be closed until atleast tomorrow morning

Oom Dagobert: I don't think it's a good idea (stamkroeg)

Darkie: But I still want that the makkers can vote on our solutions

Oom Dagobert: Of course!

Robin: But Darkie...

Darkie: But that also means that if makkers say they want to get rid of Mike, that Mike will go away

Mike: Yeah of course

Oom Dagobert: But...

Mike: But if makkers really want that, I want them to think about more than just the last 2 months

Darkie: That's their choice.

everyone starts speaking over eachother

Oom Dagobert: But guyssss..... come on..... this is

Joerie: Should I just move them Dago

Oom Dagobert: Please do that, since nobody is listening

Robin: Real

Joerie: Pharaoh, no

Oom Dagobert: Please put them in mod call

Robin: This can't be done in mod call though

Oom Dagobert: I can't even find it

Mike: I'll move you to the mod call

Robin: That's where it goes wrong

Mike: Well makkers, a lot of you are muted

User: I'm not

Mike: I'm just gonna

User: Haha I'm not muted

Joerie: Can I just tell the makkers to stay in this call so we can unmute you, thank you

Robin: But guys, I didn't get moved the people get unmuted and just talk

User: what a conversation

the people continue talking. nothing important here. thanks for reading
